

IHALA presents the 19th annual

Bois D'Arc

Primitive Skills Gathering and Knap-in September 23-25, 2016

30 mi. NW of Springfield (8 mi. E of Greenfield) on hwy. 160, north on EE, follow signs to Hulston Mill Historic Park

Free Public Area

Knapper's Camp starts Thursday
(70+ of the region's finest lithic artists)
50+ Primitive Arts & Crafts Vendors
ISAC Atlatl Competition/Archery Shoot
Skills Demonstrations
Blanket Trades
Food Concessions

Evening activities include:

Slide shows & programs, storytelling/singing/drumming by John Hernandez, campfire pickin', and a Sat. eve raffle of amazing handmade arts and crafts.

Knapper's Setup/Camping Fee

$5/night, free with workshop registration. Check in at Registration Booth before setup.

For more info: www.boisdarc.info

bo@firstearth.org

Contact Don at 417.234.0666

or Bo at 417.840.1615

And look for us on Facebook!

Workshops Offered:

Atlatl
Bow & Arrow
Flintknapping
Friction Fire
Rivercane Blowgun
Traps & Tracking
Basketry and Pottery
Edible/Medicinal Plants
Wilderness Cooking
Nature Awareness
Cordage
Shelter
Pine Pitch
Hide Tanning
Buckskin Moccasins
Edible Insects and much more!

Workshop Fees:

$60/day or $150 all three days.
Some classes require small additional material fees.

Bring: Camping & rain gear, knife, and eating utensils.

No Drugs, Alcohol, Guns or Roaming Pets, Please!